Examity© – How to find the recording from a student’s session.

How do I review the video of a proctoring session when notified of possible infractions?

These instructions will walk you through the Examity Dashboard to allow you to view a video of a student’s session.

➢ Click the link to access Examity in your course.

➢ Click

➢ Enter your Student’s name

➢ Click

When the student’s name appears,

➢ click
Student’s Details Page will give you access to view, at a glance, if there were any problems.

- Green flags are raised when there is no incident.
- Yellow flags are issued when a rule is broken but cheating does not take place.
- Red flags are given when the student exhibits clear cheating behavior.
- If a technical issue arises, we will communicate that to you with a blue alert.

➢ If you see a blue or red flag, click View to read the proctor’s notes

Scroll to the bottom half of the page. Here you can view the video of the proctored student.

The proctor’s notes are below the video.

Notice, when you see , the proctor will explain the possible infraction and the time it occurred. This will allow you to fast forward to that moment in the video.

Before a red flag notice is sent, an Examity administrator will also review the video.
